Who can use the internet?

everyone™

It is a place where we can share:

Hobbies

Dislikes

Likes

Wishes

Opinions

Ideas

But NO ONE has the right to hurt others or encourage others to hate people.

Does everyone always feel welcome online?

Is everyone always nice online?

What could you do?

You're chatting with friends online and one of the friends shares a joke that makes fun of someone. Another one of your friends writes back with this message about it:

That's not funny, it really upsets me.

What could you do?

Help your friends to talk it out

B

Tell an adult

C

Block the friend who posted the joke

D

Something else

What can I do?

If they did it on purpose:

- Tell someone
- Report it
- Block the comment or user
- Look for another site to use
- Don't join in or fight back

It was a misunderstanding:

- Help your friends to talk to each other
- Ask someone what they meant
- Remind your friends that not everyone finds the same things funny
- Before you say what's on your mind ask yourself is it kind?

Why do I need to tell an adult?

- They can help to explain what you have seen
- They can help you to block or report comments and users
- If what you saw upset you, they can help make you feel better
- They can help you to find another website to use next time

How can we make the online world safer?

- Respect each other and be kind in whatever we post
- Be supportive and helpful towards each other
- Report and block hurtful comments and accounts

Before you say what's on your mind, ask yourself, is it kind?

Don't forget to be SMART online!

SAFE	Keep your personal information safe
MEET	Friends made online are strangers; meeting them can be dangerous
ACCEPTING	Accepting files can be dangerous. If unsure, ask an adult!
RELIABLE	Not everyone or everything online is reliable or trustworthy
TELL	Always tell an adult if something online upsets or worries you Remember.....

- Think about our digital footprint.. Every action leaves a trace and once you have posted anything online, you can lose control of where the information can go and who can view it!

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

KIND TO OTHERS.

ALL OF US DESERVE TO FEEL SAFE.
